

Notable Notes

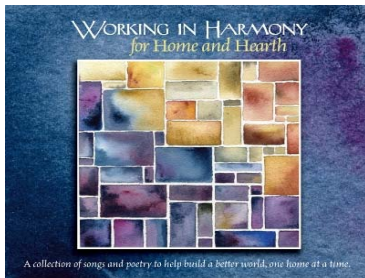

A Monthly Newsletter from Notable Works

October, 2009

Issue 16

Working in Harmony for Home & Hearth

This is a compilation CD featuring original works by local composers and poets addressing the issues of homelessness and substandard housing

Please help support our efforts by purchasing your copy of this truly unique double compact disc. You may listen to audio samples from the CDs, as well as place your order, by visiting our website at: www.NotableWorks.org

You may also call:

401-946-5357

or mail your check in the amount of $25 (includes shipping & handling) payable to:

Notable Works to
PO Box 8122, Cranston, RI
02920

Proceeds from this project will help South County Habitat for Humanity, a non-profit Christian affordable housing ministry, continue their valuable efforts of eliminating poverty housing and homelessness in South County, RI. Please visit: www.NotableWorks.org www.southcountyhabitat.org for more information

Artist Spotlight: Our Contributing Poets

Painting By J. Susan Cole Stone

Her friends and family describe Catherine as being down to earth, kindhearted, funny, caring, honest, and generous. Our executive board at Notable Works would wholeheartedly agree to that and add the words "totally dedicated and a pillar of strength and determination."

Catherine Berube, a Rhode Island native, recently lost her valiant battle with cancer. She had retired from a career in management. During her years of employment, her work experience also included being a chief cook and a security guard. She was a dedicated member of the volunteer staff of Notable Works Publication and Distribution Co., Inc. where she strove for and embraced our mission of raising awareness for environmental and social concerns through the Arts.

DREAM HOUSE

By Catherine Berube

*Some of us just sit sharing dreams of a home
We think, we listen, and we know in our hearts.*

*No one should be without a special place
For friends and family to visit*

To enjoy the magic of the holidays or anytime for that matter

*Cookouts on the patio are really fine
Everyone laughing, eating and having a good time.*

*If no one visits, you don't worry,
You have a phone afterall.*

*Just a few rings, you smile and say "I have a call"
The voice is clear, and says "Hello."*

*You smile and you say "Hello," in a joyous tone
Yes, today would be a very great day indeed*

If we could realize the dream of our very own home

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE: We are proud to announce our upcoming event on Sunday, December 13, 2009 at 3 PM at Church of the Ascension located at 390 Pontiac Ave in Cranston, RI. This event, which features performances by the Ocean State Children's Choir® directed by Paul M. Mancini, Sr., Tina Bernard, Noreen Inglesi, Alison Shea, and Mary Zema will benefit our organization and our project Working In Harmony For Home and Hearth. Silent Auction & Refreshments. Doors Open 2 PM. Tickets $10 in advance or at the door. Please call 946-5357 for advance reservations or for more information. We are also pleased to announce that our Artist in Residence Noreen Inglesi has recently been invited to join South County Habitat for Humanity's Board of Directors. Noreen is honored and excited about being part of such an outstanding community service organization and we at Notable Works, with Noreen's help, will continue supporting this organization's mission as highlighted through our joint project Working In Harmony for Home and Hearth.

For more information on Notable Works or to participate in any of our upcoming events please visit our website www.NotableWorks.org or contact us at 401-946-5357

If you do not wish to receive this newsletter, please email us at: info@NotableWorks.org

